2. PERSONS TO WHOM THIS POLICY APPLIES

Unless otherwise stated, this Policy applies to:

- all Directors and officers of the Group (including the CEO and the COO);
- all direct reports to the CEO, the COO and their direct reports;
- any other personnel designated by the Board (collectively, Personnel);

- all franchisees of the Company.

In this Policy, the persons listed above are called Relevant Persons.

Where this Policy requires a Relevant Person to do something (for example, obtaining clearance in accordance with clause 3.3), that person must also do it for their closely related parties.

3. RESTRICTIONS ON DEALING IN SECURITIES

3.1 No trading where in possession of 'inside' information

All Relevant Persons and all employees must not deal in the Company's securities where:

- they are in possession of price sensitive or 'inside' information; or

- the Company is in possession of price sensitive or 'inside' information and has notified Relevant Persons that they must not deal in securities (either for a specified period, or until the Company gives further notice).

Broadly defined, 'inside' information is information which a person knows (or should know) to be (i) not publicly available and (ii) likely to materially affect the Company's share price.

3.2 Other prohibited dealings

(a) Blackout Periods

Blackout Periods are times when Relevant Persons must not deal in the Company's securities.

The following are mandated Blackout Periods:

- from the close of the ASX trading day on 31 May each year, until 10:00am AEST on the next ASX trading day following the day on which the Company's full year results are released to the ASX;
- from the close of the ASX trading day on 30 November each year, until 10:00am AEDT on the next ASX trading day following the day on which the Company's half-yearly results are released to the ASX; and
- any other period that the Board specifies from time to time.

If 31 May or 30 November are not ASX trading days, then the Blackout Period begins on the preceding trading day.

During Blackout Periods Relevant Persons must not deal in any of the Company's financial products or securities, or in any securities related to them.

(b) Exceptional circumstances

If a Relevant Person needs to deal in securities during a Blackout Period due to exceptional circumstances but such dealing is prohibited by paragraph 3.2(a) of this Policy, the Relevant Person may apply to:

- the Chairman of the Board (if the Relevant Person is a Director (other than the Chairman of the Board), or one of their closely related parties);
- the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee and the CEO (if the Relevant Person is the Chairman of the Board or one of their closely related parties); or
- the CEO (in the case of other Relevant Persons), or their delegate (the Approver) for a waiver from compliance with the provisions of paragraph 3.2(a).

Exceptional circumstances for these purposes include severe financial hardship, compulsion by court order or any other circumstance that is deemed exceptional by the Approver.

Relevant Persons seeking a waiver under this clause must apply in writing to the relevant Approver setting out:

- the details of the proposed dealing, including an explanation as to the exceptional circumstances;
- the number and type of the securities the subject of the application;
- the proposed date/s for executing the proposed dealing/s; and
- the reason the waiver is requested.

The Approver may, in his/her reasonable discretion, require further details from the requester, and may take the time he/she considers necessary to consider the request, including time to seek legal opinion.

A waiver will only be granted if the Relevant Person's application is accompanied by sufficient evidence (in the opinion of the Approver) that the requested dealing is the only reasonable course of action available in the circumstances.

If a waiver is granted, the Relevant Person will be notified in writing (including by email) and in each circumstance the duration of the waiver to deal in securities will be two business days or as otherwise nominated by the Approver.

Where a waiver is given pursuant to this paragraph 3.2(b) the Relevant Person must notify the Company Secretary of the details of that waiver for record keeping purposes.

Unless otherwise specified in the approval notice, any dealing permitted under this paragraph 3.2(b) must comply with the other sections of this Policy (to the extent applicable).

- (c) No short-term dealing – buying and selling within three month period

Relevant Persons must not deal in the Company's securities on a short-term trading basis. Short-term trading includes buying and selling securities on market within a three month period, and entering into other short-term dealings (for example, forward contracts).

3.3 Other permitted dealings

- (a) During any period other than a Blackout Period, and before any dealing in shares is undertaken, the Relevant Person seeking to trade (column A, below) must provide notification to and seek approval for any proposed dealing in the Company's securities from the person/s approving the trade (column B, below):

Column A Relevant Person seeking to trade (including any closely related party)	Column B Person/s approving the trade
Directors and officers of the Group (including the CEO and the COO)	The Chairman of the Board
The Chairman of the Board	The Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee, and the CEO
The CEO and the COO's direct reports, their direct reports and any person designated by the Board under clause 2 of this policy.	The CEO

- (b) Following approval Relevant Persons (or their closely related party) must undertake the proposed dealing within two business days or as otherwise notified by the person providing such approval. If the dealing is not undertaken within this time, the approval will no longer have effect and a new approval will be required.
- (c) Relevant Persons must confirm any such dealings with the person who endorsed the transaction and the Company Secretary within two business days of the dealing. The Company Secretary will keep a record of this information.

The insider trading restriction in paragraph 3.1 applies to all dealings in the Company's securities despite any approval given to a Relevant Person under this Policy, and the Relevant Person is responsible for ensuring that the dealing does not breach this restriction.

3.4 Margin Lending

Any dealing in the Company's securities by Relevant Persons pursuant to a margin lending arrangement is not permitted. Such dealings would cover:

- entering into a margin lending arrangement in respect of the Company's securities;
- transferring securities in the Company into an existing margin loan account; and
- selling securities in the Company to satisfy a call pursuant to a margin loan.

3.5 Hedging of Company securities

- (a) Hedging includes entering into transactions in financial products that operate to limit the economic risk associated with holding Company securities.
- (b) Hedging of Company securities by a Relevant Person is subject to the following overriding prohibitions:
 - the hedge transaction must not be entered into, renewed, altered or closed out when the Relevant Person is in possession of inside information;
 - Company securities must never be hedged prior to the vesting of those Company securities. In particular, Relevant Persons are prohibited from entering into any hedge transaction involving unvested equity held pursuant to any employee, executive or director equity plan operated by the Company; and
 - Company securities must never be hedged while they are subject to a holding lock or restriction on dealing under the terms of any employee, executive or director equity plan operated by the Company.
- (c) Relevant Persons are permitted to hedge their vested and unrestricted Company securities on the following conditions:
 - the hedge transaction is treated as a dealing in Company securities for the purposes of this Policy, and the relevant approvals and notifications are made on this basis; and
 - the relevant requirements under paragraph 3.3 of this Policy have been satisfied.

Where a Relevant Person enters into a hedging arrangement in respect of Company securities, the Company may, where appropriate, disclose the fact and nature of the hedge (e.g. in its annual report or to ASX).

3.6 Exclusions

Paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3 of this Policy do not apply to:

- (a) participation in an employee, executive or director equity plan operated by the Company (e.g. applying for an allocation of securities under an employee equity plan offer). However, where securities in the Company granted under an employee, executive or director equity plan cease to be held under the terms of that plan, any dealings in those securities must only occur in accordance with this Policy;
- (b) the following categories of passive trades:
 - acquisition of Company securities through a dividend reinvestment plan;
 - acquisition of Company securities through a share purchase plan available to all retail shareholders;
 - acquisition of Company securities through a rights issue; and
 - the disposal of Company securities through the acceptance of a takeover offer;
- (c) dealings that result in no effective change to the beneficial interest in the securities (for example, transfers of Company securities already held into a superannuation fund or trust of which the Relevant Person is a beneficiary); and
- (d) trading under a pre-approved non-discretionary trading plan, where the Relevant Person did not enter into the plan or amend the plan during a Blackout Period, the plan does not permit the Relevant Person to exercise any influence or discretion in relation to trading under the plan and the plan cannot be cancelled during a Blackout Period, other than in exceptional circumstances.

For the avoidance of doubt, such dealings are still subject to the insider trading restrictions of this Policy where applicable.

4. SECURITIES IN OTHER COMPANIES

In general Relevant Persons are free to deal in securities in other listed companies, but should note that the Corporations Act contains various prohibitions on trading in other listed companies with which the Company may be dealing (including the Company's customers, contractors or business partners) where that person possesses 'inside' information in relation to that other company.

Relevant Persons may come into possession of 'inside' information where they are directly involved in client relationship management or negotiating contracts. For example, where the Relevant Person is aware that the Company is about to sign a major agreement with another company, the Relevant Person should not deal in securities in either the Company or the other company.

If you are in doubt, you should: (a) not trade; (b) not pass the inside information to another person; and (c) immediately seek advice from the Company's legal team.

5. BREACH

Breaches of the insider trading laws have serious consequences for both the Relevant Person concerned and the Company. Breaches of this Policy are regarded as serious and will be subject to appropriate sanctions.

Any person who:

- is suspected of breaching this Policy may be suspended from attending the workplace on full pay pending the outcome of investigations into the alleged breach; or
- is proven to have breached this Policy could face disciplinary action (including forfeiture of securities and/or suspension or termination of employment).

6. INSIDER TRADING

The requirements imposed by this Policy are separate from, and additional to, the legal prohibitions in the Corporations Act on insider trading.
